5% OFF ALL ORDERS OF 3 OR MORE CASES IN APRIL

(Excluding Champagne)

This is an interim list before we see what the budget does and our new main list comes out. It has been done in something of a hurry because I cannot see anything other than price rises on the horizon however you look at it - budget, exchange rate, binge drinking restraints and any other reason someone can find to make it painful to drink wine!

Prices have already gone up but will go up even further because we have had more increases forecast, so while we have stock and a few weeks breathing space, we would like to offer you a 5% off deal.

Perhaps they will not increase duty or vat and the pound will regain its strength - but don't bet on it!

** SPECIAL OFFERS ** (excluding the 5% offer)

Hardys' Stamp (Australia)

We have a parcel of this excellent quality everyday wine. Which is particularly good value at the moment. Both are fresh, youthful wines with good balance and acidity.

Semillon / Chardonnay 2007 / 2008 (6) £4.98 £29.88

Semillon / Sauvignon 2007 / 2008 (6) £4.98 £29.88

To my surprise I liked the Shiraz /Cabernet Sauvignon better than the Cabernet Sauvignon/Merlot. It has better structure, a firmer taste and compliments foods better. The Cabernet/Merlot is softer in style with a more fruit driven palate.

Shiraz / Cabernet Sauvignon 2007/2008 (6) £4.98 £29.88

Cabernet Sauvignon / Merlot 2007/2008 (6) £4.98 £29.88

Both the red and white will return to £5.69 when this stock is finished.

Bodegas Beronia, Gonzales Byass Rioja (Spain)

Big, ripe and full flavoured all the way through with a powerful finish.

Beronia Reserva NEW (12) £8.99 £107.88

This is a finer more complex Rioja than the Crianza above but still full of power and resonance.
